

Dr Ryal Wun

Deputy Executive Director and Legal Director, Global Compact Network Singapore
Managing Director, Carbon Pricing Leadership Coalition Singapore

Bio

Ryal has held a wide range of appointments in the public and private sectors since 1993, serving in operations and administration at national and regional levels. His career includes nearly a decade in public service where he initiated programmes in educational and community development.

In his current role, Ryal is responsible for operations, research and compliance matters for Global Compact Network Singapore (GCNS)<sup>1</sup>. He also oversees decarbonisation strategies for Carbon Pricing Leadership Coalition Singapore (CPLC)<sup>2</sup> Singapore.

Ryal currently serves on the Board of Visitors to Children's Homes of the Ministry of Social and Family Development, and also on the Advisory Committee for the Packaging Partnership Programme (PPP).

A published author in public international law and sustainability, Ryal is a law graduate from the University of London. He holds three Master's degrees in Business Administration, International Law, and Diplomatic Studies (Distinction) from the University of Oxford, as well as a doctorate in International Law. He is also trained in GHG Protocols and ISO 14064 carbon reporting by the Canadian Standards Association.

---

<sup>1</sup> Global Compact Network Singapore

As the Singapore Chapter of the United Nations Global Compact, GCNS advances the stewardship of sustainable business practices and Singapore's national agenda of becoming a regional sustainable business hub.

<sup>2</sup> Carbon Pricing Leadership Coalition Singapore

As the only local Chapter of the World Bank's CPLC outside Washington DC, CPLC SG advances the decarbonisation of businesses in the transition to a low carbon global economy.