Foreword

This is your pocket guide to VAT in Sweden

The purpose of this book is to provide a detailed summary on Sweden's VAT system sufficiently in depth to give a non-resident business an understanding of its VAT liability; or give it the ability to predict liability on future or reorganised business; and to permit it to manage some elements of compliance. The text reflects the applicable Swedish VAT legislation in force as of January 2014. This book is based on the author's contribution to the Bloomberg BNA new reference work – the VAT Navigator.

The author, Fredrik Erneholm, is the head of Bird & Bird's international VAT group. Before joining the firm, he worked as the indirect tax manager at one of the major banks in the Nordic countries. Fredrik started to work with tax matters at the Swedish Tax Agency in 2004.

Bird & Bird is one of few law firms that offer a team of specialists in VAT and indirect taxes across Europe, the Middle East and Asia. The tax group at Bird & Bird offers the whole spectrum of tax services including general tax issues, cross-border tax structuring, litigation, transfer pricing issues, incentive schemes and VAT issues.
