

Meet the General Counsel

Trent Czinner, General Counsel for Vodafone Hutchison Australia

Trent Czinner was appointed General Counsel of VHA in December 2013. Trent is responsible for VHA's legal and corporate security functions and leads a team of expert lawyers and analysts supported by a panel of external law firms.

Trent provides advice on a wide range of legal matters across the business, including ensuring Vodafone complies with its legal and regulatory obligations.

Trent has worked as a telecoms and technology lawyer since 1998 when he was employed as Legal Manager for Hutchison Telecoms Australia. He spent the following 13 years working as a senior lawyer for Hutchison Whampoa's telecoms businesses in Australia and Europe.

From 2011 to 2013, Trent ran the legal function for salesforce.com in Australia and NZ. Trent started his legal career as a litigator at one of Australia's largest law firms.

Vodafone Hutchison Australia

Vodafone Hutchison Australia (VHA) provides mobile services to more than 5.3 million customers in Australia and employs around 3,000 people around the country. VHA was formed in June 2009 following a merger between Vodafone Australia and Hutchison Telecommunications Australia and is now a 50:50 venture between Vodafone Group PLC in the UK and Hutchison Whampoa Ltd in Hong Kong.

Justin Coss, General Counsel for AUB Group

Justin has more than 20 years' insurance-related legal experience including eight years in the London insurance market. Most recently, he held the position of General Counsel & Company Secretary at InterRISK (an AUB Group Limited partner), during which time he has managed the legal, compliance and claims areas of the business and has acted in several M&A transactions.

Justin commenced his career in the insurance and risk management group of Minter Ellison before joining leading London based insurance and reinsurance solicitors, Ince & Co. He has also acted as a senior in-house legal adviser at Lloyd's syndicate, XL Brockbank Ltd and sole in-house counsel at the Danish insurer, Tryg-Baltica. Upon returning to Australia, he practiced as a senior associate in the insurance and reinsurance group at Allens Arthur Robinson in Sydney before spending seven years with InterRISK.

Justin is an active industry participant and currently sits on the NIBA Regulatory Affairs Committee in addition to serving as a Board member and current NSW President of the Australian Corporate Lawyers Association.

AUB Group

AUB Group (ASX:AUB) is the leading equity-based risk management, advice and solutions provider in Australasia. Operating across a broad spectrum of risk and insurance, AUB Group is providing total risk solutions for clients. A top 250 ASX listed company, AUB Group comprises 75 equity businesses that form leading insurance broking networks (Austbrokers and NZbrokers), underwriting agencies (SURA) and specialist risk services. Serviced through partners, the group represents more than 450,000 clients, across 310 locations and in excess of $2.6 billion of GWP. For more information, visit aubgroup.com.au (<http://aubgroup.com.au>)

Anna Shaw, Senior Legal Counsel (APAC) for Bravura Solutions

Anna Shaw is the Senior Legal Counsel - APAC for Bravura Solutions and was appointed in March 2015. Anna is responsible for Bravura Solutions' legal function and team of legal experts, as well as managing the company's panel of external legal counsel.

Providing advice to all areas of the business, Anna advises on technology contracts, commercial arrangements and manages regulatory compliance across the Asia Pacific region.

Before joining Bravura Solutions, Anna worked as an in-house lawyer for a range of leading Australian companies spanning the telecommunications, banking and technology sectors.

Anna studied law at the University of Technology, Sydney (UTS) and began her legal career at KPMG Legal before moving to a leading commercial law firm.

Bravura Solutions

Bravura Solutions is a trusted provider of software solutions for the wealth management, life insurance and transfer agency industries, underpinned by functionally rich technology that enables modernisation, consolidation and simplification.

Bravura Solutions is committed to increasing the operational and cost efficiency of its clients, enhancing its clients' ability to rapidly innovate and grow, minimising its clients' risk and enabling its clients to provide better service to their own customers.

Backed by over 30 years of experience, Bravura Solutions' installed or managed hosted solutions are mission critical to some of the world's leading financial institutions. In excess of A$2.5 trillion in assets are entrusted to Bravura Solutions' systems.

Bravura Solutions supports its clients with a team of more than 920 people in 13 offices across Australia, New Zealand, Asia, United Kingdom, Europe and South Africa.

For more information about Bravura Solutions, visit www.bravurasolutions.com. You can also follow Bravura Solutions @BravuraFinTech (<http://twitter.com/BravuraFinTech>).

Cathy Hoyle, General Counsel for Enero Group

Cathy Hoyle is the Senior Legal Counsel at Enero Group and was appointed in July 2014. Cathy oversees Enero's legal team and provides a broad range of commercial legal support to the business and its group of 11 subsidiary consumer insight and research, public relations, b2b communications and creative advertising and marketing businesses.

Before joining Enero, Cathy worked for a number of well-known commercial law firms in the Australian market, where she advised clients in the media, entertainment and technology sectors.

Cathy studied law at the University of Canberra before completing her Masters of Law at the Australian National University.

Before turning to law, Cathy enjoyed a successful career in media and marketing in the United States. Her last role before beginning her legal studies was Director of Marketing at Fanscape, the largest independent music marketing company in Los Angeles.

Enero Group

Enero Group is a boutique network of marketing and communications businesses providing outstanding work for clients across the full range of marketing and communications services. Listed on the Australian Securities Exchange our businesses operate primarily out of three key hubs in Sydney, London and New York and from many places in between.

Catherine Lee, General Counsel for Fetch TV

Catherine Lee has been General Counsel of Fetch TV since 2010.

Catherine holds degrees in law and politics from the University of Queensland and a Masters in Law from the University of London. She commenced her legal career as an associate to Sir Gerard Brennan (later Chief Justice) of the High Court of Australia and then worked for leading firms in Sydney, including Herbert Smith Freehills and Gilbert & Tobin, specialising in commercial litigation and media law. She moved from private practice when she was engaged as legal counsel for the Sydney Organising Committee for the Olympic Games and then joined leading television producer and distributor Endemol Southern Star.

She was appointed as Fetch TV General Counsel when it was still a start-up and oversees all legal work, and legal aspects of business development and regulatory affairs for a growing and now significant subscription television provider in Australia. She was and is responsible for the foundation agreements for distribution and content for Fetch TV, including negotiation of all major arrangements with key movie studios and other content providers, network, manufacturers and IP providers.

Fetch TV

Fetch TV is a technology developer and content aggregator providing a broadband delivered subscription TV entertainment service to leading internet service providers Optus, the iiNet Group and M2. Founded in Sydney in 2007 the company is now majority owned by Astro part of the Uhasa Tegas group. Fetch TV is rapidly growing with over 320,000 active customers, and the service continues to evolve with new features, functionality and content being regularly added.

Christina Hardy, Garvan Institute of Medical Research

Christina Hardy is currently Director – Corporate, Legal & Partnerships at the Garvan Institute of Medical Research and holds several non-executive directorships in health and medical related sectors. Commercialising and translating technology into healthcare is a key focus area in all of her roles. Christina's roles require the building of win-win partnerships with key internal and external stakeholders, strong commercial acumen and financial literacy, coupled with communication, engagement and influencing skills. In her Board roles, Christina provides strategic, risk, and corporate and clinical governance skill sets.

Christina's background includes corporate and commercial law (in-house counsel and in private practice) in Australia, the UK and Asia principally in the ICT sector. Earlier in her career she spent several years working in politics and in public relations.

Christina's formal qualifications include a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Business – Communications (Journalism). Christina is also a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD) and is currently studying for an MBA.

The Garvan Institute of Medical Research is one of Australia's leading biomedical research institutes, pioneering study into the most widespread diseases affecting our community today, including cancer, neurodegenerative and mental diseases, disorders of the immune system, diabetes and obesity, osteoporosis and other skeletal disorders.

HOME \(/\) THE PRIZE \(/THE-PRIZE\) THE GCS \(/THE-GCS\) TERMS & CONDITIONS \(/TERMS-AND-CONDITIONS\)

(<http://www.twobirds.com/en/>)

Bird & Bird